

Name: _____

Communication and Teamwork Activity

Discussion Questions

/20

Communication Activity:

1. Which role was the easiest? Why do you think that?

2. Which role was the hardest? Why do you think that?

3. What other soft skills were you using during this activity?

4. Why do you think more than one soft skill is required for good communication?

5. What strategies did you use when you had to communicate the drawing to the artist if any?

6. What did you learn about good communication from this activity?

7. What did you learn about miscommunication from this activity?

8. What advice would you give somebody about improving their communication skills after completing this activity?

9. How do you think this activity helped prepare you for communication in a job environment?

Teamwork Activity:

1. Did you successfully complete the activity while being able to talk?

2. Did you successfully complete the activity while not being able to talk?

3. Did somebody take charge of the team and start ordering everyone around?

–

4. Were there people who you wish contributed more than they did?

–

5. How did you deal with the “leader” of the group. Or, if you were the “leader” how did you deal with the rest of the group?

6. Was it easy to complete this activity as a team? Why or why not?

7. What would you have done differently if you were working on this problem alone?

8. What other soft skills contributed to a positive team environment?

9. What other soft skills do you wish your team had used or had used better?

10. After this activity, what advice would you give someone about working in a team environment?

11. How do you think this activity helped prepare you for a job environment?
